PURE CO LAUNCHES THE VERY FIRST XMAS TIPI PARTY AT THE SQUARE

Xmas Tipi Party launched at The Square on 4th December with an evening of fizz, canapés and live music. The two Scandinavian tipis are decorated for the festive season with pine branches, twinkling fairy lights and a bioethanol fire for a cosy grotto feel. Guests enjoyed a glass or two of fizz and canapés from Conrad Jenkins of The Chef's Table for a flavour of the food and drink that will be served at Xmas Tipi Party.

Xmas Tipi Party will run from 5th–14th December, with availability for lunchtime and evening bookings on Thursdays and Fridays. Packages include a welcome glass of fizz, a three-course festive feast from award-winning Bristol chef Conrad Jenkins and a half bottle of wine per person, as well as live music or a DJ, dancefloor and bar. On Saturday 7th and 14th December, Xmas Tipi will be open to the public as a bar and live music venue at The Square.

PURE Co, the Bristol-based event management company behind Xmas Tipi Party, is proud to bring this event to The Square. PURE Co has collaborated with other southwest businesses, including Buffalo Tipi, The Chef's Table and Bath Ales, to ensure this event showcases the very best of local suppliers. Music will be performed by talented local artists and students from BIMM. Jon Sexstone, managing director, says "Xmas Tipi Party is the first stage of our plan to bring exciting events to Bristol. I have a great passion for Bristol and now that PURE Co is established as a national brand, we are ready to make our mark in the best city in the world.

We're looking forward to imagining and bringing to life events in Bristol that rival those that pop up in London and other major European cities. PURE Co has come a long way since 2005, I have a great team of people around me, incredible local suppliers on board and now it's time to see how high we can go."

Xmas Tipi Party will return to The Square next year for the festive season. For Xmas Tipi Party bookings or enquiries for 2020, call PURE Co on 0333 32 32 800 or visit www.xmastipiparty.co.uk.
